RESOLUTION 2012-03

A RESOLUTION TO ESTABLISH LATE CHARGES FOR FAILURE TO OBTAIN A COOKE TOWNSHIP VALUATION PERMIT.

COOKE TOWNSHIP ORDINANCE 2001-5 details requirements for Valuation Permits. There have been an excessive number of projects that were completed or in progress without obtaining a permit.

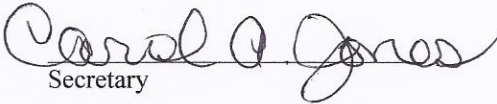

Failure to obtain a Cooke Township Valuation Permit shall constitute an automatic late charge of fifty dollars ($50.00). Upon obtaining a permit, this late charge shall be added to the normal fee required.

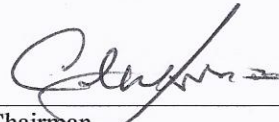

The Pennsylvania Home Improvement Consumer Protection ACT 132 requires all contractors to display their official registration number on all contracts, estimates and proposals. This registration number shall now be required to be noted on the Cooke Township Valuation Permit.

Resolution 2012-03 approved this date February 7, 2012.
